

Urapuntja Health Service Aboriginal Corporation (UHSAC) - Corporate Profile

1. Executive Summary

Urapuntja Health Service Aboriginal Corporation (UHSAC) is a First Nations community-controlled health organisation (ACCHO) established in 1986. UHSAC delivers comprehensive primary health care services to the residents of the Utopia Homelands (Urapuntja) in the Barkly Region of the Northern Territory.

UHSAC operates under a community-elected Board of Directors representing the various homelands, ensuring that healthcare delivery is culturally safe, self-determined, and aligned with local needs.
